THE DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY (FEAST OF DIVINE MERCY)

On the Second Sunday of Easter of the Jubilee Year 2000, at the Mass for the canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska, Pope John Paul II proclaimed to the world that "from now on throughout the Church" this Sunday will be called "Divine Mercy Sunday." Our Lord insisted that it be celebrated on a specific day - the Sunday after Easter!

Our Lord revealed to St. Faustina His desire to literally flood us with His graces on that day. Just consider each of the promises and desires that He expressed about Mercy Sunday, which are recorded in the main passage of the Diary — passage 699 — about Mercy Sunday.

Requirements for the Divine Mercy Sunday:

- * To observe this feast we should commence a Novena to the Divine Mercy on Good Friday, the Novena includes special intentions for each day and is concluded with the recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet.
- * Celebrate the feast on the first Sunday after Easter.
- * Come to Jesus with a humble and contrite heart, repent of all your sins.
- * Firmly trust in the Divine Mercy of Jesus.
- * Go to confession (with a priest) on that day if possible, otherwise seven days before or after the feast, as approved by the Church..
- * Receive Holy Communion on the Day of the Feast.
- * Venerate the image of Divine Mercy.
- * Be merciful as God is merciful. Practice works of Mercy, physically by helping others or spiritually by prayers of intercession.

Requirements for Divine Mercy Sunday Plenary Indulgence:

1. Attend the holy sacrifice of the mass on the Sunday after Easter or its Saturday vigil
2. Have completed a sacramental confession (within a reasonable amount of time, specified as 8 days for the regular plenary indulgence)
3. Receive Eucharistic Communion (of course, in the state of grace, no mortal sin)
4. Ask for Divine Mercy

The special indulgence is earned when they meet the basic requirements and then, "with a soul totally detached from affection to any sin, even venial, participate in the pious practices undertaken in honor of divine mercy, or at least recite in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, the Our Father, the Creed and a pious invocation to the merciful Lord Jesus," such as "Merciful Jesus, I trust in you" Jesus asks us that we be merciful so it is desirable but not necessary that the person perform an act of mercy on this Sunday, such as visiting those in need or difficulty, such as the sick, elderly, lonely, handicapped or imprisoned, praying for the needy, or penance as an act of mercy.

If someone is physically unable to attend mass and receive communion on that day through no fault of their own they can make a spiritual communion and that will suffice.
