SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MT 13:24-43

Jesus proposed another parable to the crowds, saying:

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field.

While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off.

When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well.

The slaves of the householder came to him and said,

'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field?

Where have the weeds come from?'

He answered, 'An enemy has done this.'

His slaves said to him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?'

He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds

you might uproot the wheat along with them.

Let them grow together until harvest;

then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters,

"First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning;

but gather the wheat into my barn.'""

REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers three parables to describe the Kingdom of Heaven. He also explains why he speaks to the crowds in parables and interprets the parable of the sower for the disciples. This reading is a continuation of Jesus' discourse that we began reading last Sunday.

All three parables use commonplace experiences to describe aspects of the Kingdom of Heaven. The first parable is longer and more detailed than the next two, and it alerts us to the two-fold reality of the Kingdom of Heaven. The beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven can be found in this world. The fruition of the Kingdom of Heaven, however, will not be realized until the final judgment. In the meantime, as Jesus' explanation to the disciples cautions, any effort to judge the progress of the Kingdom of Heaven is premature. Only God, in the final judgment, will distinguish the fruit of the Kingdom of Heaven and offer its reward.

The second and third parables call to our attention the abundance that will result from the small beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven. Just as a mustard seed—the smallest of all seeds—will become a large bush, so too God will bring his Kingdom to full bloom. As a small amount of yeast will leaven the entire batch of bread, so too God will bring about the expansion of his Kingdom. In each case the image is of the superabundance that God brings out of even the smallest of signs of the Kingdom.

Contained within these parables are words of caution as well as words of consolation. In the parable of the sower we are warned against judging others. To judge and uproot the "weeds" prematurely will harm the wheat; final judgment rests with God. In the parables of the mustard seed and the yeast, we are consoled by the message that God can work wonders and produce abundance from even the smallest beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven.

JULY 26- SAINTS JOACHIM & ANNE

You have probably heard the expression: The apple does not fall far from the tree. It means that children are often like their parents. Scripture does not tell us anything about the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Tradition tells us that their names were Joachim and Ann. The name Ann means "grace," while Joachim means "the Lord will judge." Tradition also says that Joachim and Ann took their daughter to the Temple in Jerusalem when she was very young. They understood that Mary was a special child, so they dedicated her to God.

We do know that Joachim and Ann have been honored in the Church from early Christian times. By looking at Mary, their child, we can figure out several things about them. They must have set the example that Mary followed to become the loving, gentle, faith-filled, courageous woman she was—the perfect woman to bear and raise the Son of God.

Whether or not Joachim and Ann are the real names of Mary's parents, the couple were the holy, heroic ones who faithfully prepared for the coming of the Messiah.

Because Joachim and Ann were the grandparents of Jesus, they are the patrons of grandparents. St. Ann is venerated in Canada, where there is a basilica in her honor in Quebec.

AFTER ALL MASSES

Our Lady Queen of the World

Society of St Vincent De Paul

- * Did you know this collection only happens 3 times a year
- * Did you know that the money stays here in OUR parish

Every Monday morning from 9:30 - 11 am

OUR own parishioners run a small table over at the hall to meet with local folks of our community who are in need.

Under the Conference of St Vincent De Paul we are able to help those in need with food and clothing and household needs.

Not all the parishes in our dioceses have this service available.
It is a wonderful feeling to be able to help others when we can .

Small efforts can work large wonders

If you have any questions or know any one who can use our help please contact the rectory office.

Or drop by any Monday and say hi

Next Weekend is one of the 3 times

The second collection at mass on

July 29 & 30 will be for SVDP.

Thank you for your generous support!

2017 SUMMER CHARISMATIC RETREAT

“You Are Not Your Own”

1 Cor. 6:19

Fr. Michael Barry, SS.CC

Fr. Barry has served as Provincial for the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary. Father resides in Southern California where he served as Director of the Charismatic Renewal for the San Bernardino Diocese for twenty years.

He began Mary's Table, a ministry that feeds multitudes in San Bernardino, Veronica's House, a home for unwed mothers, and Joseph's Closet--a clothing ministry. Fr. Mike teaches about seeking and giving God's mercy. He encourages charismatics to live the full gospel by assisting the less fortunate.

Our Lord has blessed Fr. Barry with gifts of word of knowledge, word of wisdom, and a powerful inner and physical healing ministry that is a witness of God's love and mercy.
