THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Mt 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

This week's Gospel follows close behind the Gospel read last Sunday. It is the last of three questions put to Jesus by Jewish religious leaders who are trying to trick him into saying something that might get him arrested. This reminds us that the context for today's reading is the mounting tension between Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem.

The Herodians and the Pharisees asked the first question, which was about taxes. The Sadducees asked the second question, which was about the Resurrection (see Matthew 22:22-33). The third question, considered in today's Gospel, is asked by a Pharisee who asks Jesus about the greatest of the commandments.

The question requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional rules, numbering over six hundred. Adherence to the Mosaic Law, for a devout Jew, is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel. The ranking of the Commandments was regularly debated among the teachers of the Law.

Jesus answers the Pharisees' question with a two-fold summary. Jesus says that all of the commandments can be summarized in two commandments: love God and love your neighbor. Both of these were central elements of the religious tradition Jesus learned from his Jewish community. Indeed these continue to be central aspects of contemporary Jewish religious understanding. Jesus' response to his questioners proposed an integral connection between these two aspects of the Jewish Law. Love of God finds its expression in our love for our neighbor.

NOVEMBER 1 – ALL SAINTS' DAY

On the feast of All Saints, we honor those men and women who—whether they've been canonized or not—have led lives of heroic virtue that set an example for all Christians. Saints are big dreamers. They believe that with God on their side, no one and nothing can stop them. Saints are go-getters. They don't wait for someone else to do good first; they jump right in. Saints are love-bringers. They try to see Christ in every person and every situation. Saints tell us what matters most in life is not what we earn or own, not the job we have or the people we know. What really matters is how much we love God, others, and ourselves, and how well we show that love in all we do.

Collect Prayer from the solemnity of All Saints

Let us pray today.

Almighty ever-living God,
by whose gift we venerate in one celebration
the merits of all the Saints,
bestow on us, we pray,
through the prayers of so many intercessors,
an abundance of the reconciliation with you for which we earnestly long.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

STUDENTS' PROFILE

Each week, the bulletin will present a short profile on the students enrolled in RCIA as a means of introducing them to the parish community. Please pray for these students as they continue their journey in faith.

David Tejada Gallegos Jr.: "I was born in Walnut Creek on July 12, 2001 into a Hispanic household. I have a sister who is 25 years old. I live in Bay Point and went to Kindergarten at Shore Acres, Ayers Elementary School, and am currently enrolled at Clayton Valley Charter School.

"I enjoy music. I started with the violin, and now I'm into double head bass from double bass. I am presently inclined towards the cello, being in a chamber orchestra at school. I enjoy playing musical instruments because I find the most caring people among them.

"I attend RCIA to have no complications later when I plan to get married. I also want to learn more about the Catholic faith and enjoy the teachings we learn from the Bible. Knowing what we expect from the Sacraments is very enriching."

Ilse Orozco: "I am sixteen going on seventeen. I am the oldest of three. I have two brothers, Alan and Marvin, to whom I am trying to be a good example, even though I am still learning the right from the wrong.

"I am a junior at Pittsburg High School, and I enjoy swimming, reading and writing, but not math. My goal is to become involved in the medical profession upon graduation. I love Chinese food and enjoy music.

"I am in the RCIA program because I want to know more about God, and why I am a Catholic. I am a teenager learning about my mistakes and becoming better with every passing day.

RELIGION QUIZ

The 4th Luminous Mystery of the Rosary is called the _____.

Last week's answer: Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word."
