GOSPEL

MK 12:28b-34

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replied, "The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.' And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices." And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

Mark 12:28b-34

As we continue to read from Mark's Gospel, our Lectionary skips a chapter that helps set the context for today's reading. If we were to read the sections skipped (chapter 11 and part of chapter 12), we would hear about Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, his cleansing of the Temple, and the questioning of Jesus' authority by the chief priests, scribes, and elders. The context, therefore, for this Gospel is Jesus' growing exposure before the Jewish authorities. Jesus is being questioned and tested by the Jewish authorities, yet the scribe who addresses Jesus in today's Gospel seems to be an admirer; he is not testing Jesus.

The question posed in today's Gospel requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional commandments, numbering into the hundreds. For a devout Jew, adherence to the Mosaic Law is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel. The ranking of these commandments was regularly debated among the teachers of the Law.

Jesus was not the only Jewish religious teacher to connect these two commandments, love of God and love of neighbor. Both of these commandments were central elements of the religious tradition that Jesus learned from his Jewish community. Indeed, these commandments continue to be central aspects of contemporary Jewish religious understanding. Jesus' response to his questioners proposed an integral connection between these two aspects of the Jewish Law. Love of God finds its expression in our love for our neighbor. Many believe, however, that this connection was heard in a new and fresh way when spoken by Jesus

ST. NICHOLAS TAVELUX & COMPANIONS

Feast on Nov. 6

Nicholas and his three companions are among the 158 Franciscans who have been martyred in the Holy Land since the friars became custodians of the shrines in 1335.

Nicholas was born in 1340 to a wealthy and noble family in Croatia. He joined the Franciscans, and was sent with Deodat of Rodez to preach in Bosnia. In 1384, they volunteered for the Holy Land missions and were sent there. They looked after the holy places, cared for the Christian pilgrims, and studied Arabic.

In 1391, Nicholas, Deodat, Peter of Narbonne, and Stephen of Cuneo decided to take a direct approach to converting the Muslims. On November 11, they went to the huge Mosque of Omar in Jerusalem and asked to see the Qadix—Muslim official. Reading from a prepared statement, they said that all people must accept the gospel of Jesus. When they were ordered to retract their statement, they refused. After beatings and imprisonment, they were beheaded before a large crowd.

Nicholas and his companions were canonized in 1970. They are the only Franciscans martyred in the Holy Land to be canonized. The Liturgical Feast of Saint Nicholas Tavelic and Companions is November 14.

Reflection

Francis presented two missionary approaches for his friars. Nicholas and his companions followed the first approach—live quietly and give witness to Christ—for several years. Then they felt called to take the second approach of preaching openly. Their Franciscan confrères in the Holy Land are still working by example to make Jesus better known.

PRAY & LIVE

The fruits of charity are joy, peace, and mercy; charity demands beneficence and fraternal correction; it is benevolence; it fosters reciprocity and remains disinterested and generous; it is friendship and communion: Love is itself the fulfillment of all our works. There is the goal; that is why we run: we run toward it, and once we reach it, in it we shall find rest. – St. Augustine

THANK YOU LETTER

In behalf of the Officers & Board Members I would like to thank you all for the support you have extended to the Filipino Association.

For 30 years the Association has been serving the Parish not only thru fund raising more so in the spiritual development. I, personally thank all my predecessors for all the hard work they have put into the Association to be where it is now. It is our goal to share the Filipino traditions like celebrating the Sto. Nino (Baby Jesus) in January, Santa Cruzan or Flores De Mayo adoring Blessed Mother Mary in May & the Simbang Gabi (dawn mass), the 9 days novena before Christmas. Our Spiritual journey help us to know & be more closer to God with the support of our Legion of Mary group, Devotion to Our Mother of Perpetual Help & Divine Mercy.

The Filipinos celebrated it's 500 years of Catholic Evangelization sharing our faith & serving God thru prayers & helping those in need. Your donations & sponsorships supporting the Association goes a long way because all proceeds benefit the Parish programs.

I am grateful to my predecessors, Mr. Tony Bulatao, 1st President, Mr. Rick Belza, Mr. Rene Asuncion, Mr. Gary Samson, Ms. Janet Santos, Ms. Shawnee Graham, Mr. Merlin Asuncion & Mr. Romy Collado and all their Board Members & active members who assisted them in performing their mission to serve.

To the current Officers, Board Members, active Members, event Chairpersons & Chore groups you are my backbone, I can't thank you enough for all the help you have given me for the past 4 years & 10 months.

I thank Father Peter Dung Ngo for the encouragement & support, your stewardship made me who I am.

Thank you.
