GOSPEL READING

Luke 5: 1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

REFLECTION ON GOSPEL

Last Sunday, we heard how Jesus was rejected in his hometown of Nazareth. In the verses that follow, Jesus travels to the town of Capernaum and begins his ministry of teaching and healing. While in Capernaum, Jesus cures a man possessed with a demon and heals Simon's mother-in-law. After spending some time there, Jesus prepares to preach in other places. The fact that Jesus had previously been in Simon's home and healed his mother-in-law suggests that this encounter is not the first between Jesus and Simon Peter. We can read today's Gospel, therefore, as a description of the developing relationship between Jesus and Simon Peter.

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches from Simon's boat. Jesus turns to Simon and instructs him about where to lower the fishing nets. Simon and others have been fishing throughout the night and have not caught anything. Simon protests, claiming that such an effort would be futile. Simon ultimately obeys Jesus and lowers his nets into the deeper water as directed. Notice here that Peter calls Jesus by the title "master." He already recognizes Jesus as a person of authority. They catch so many fish that the nets begin to tear; Jesus' presence has created abundance out of scarcity, just as it did at the wedding feast at Cana, which we heard at Mass just a few weeks ago.

Simon Peter becomes a follower of Jesus immediately. He calls Jesus "Lord"—the title given to Jesus after his Resurrection—and protests his worthiness to be in Jesus' presence. Today's Gospel, therefore, marks a turning point in the relationship between Jesus and Peter.

Two of Simon's partners are also named as witnesses to the event described in today's Gospel: Zebedee's sons, James and John. Yet Jesus' words are addressed only to Simon. Jesus gives Simon a new job, telling him that he will become a different kind of fisherman. No longer will he catch fish; instead he will catch people. In these words, we hear the beginning of the leadership role that Peter will have within the community of disciples. Peter was chosen for this role. His task will be to bring others to Jesus. Already he is doing so; the Gospel tells us that all the fishermen with Peter also left their nets and followed Jesus.

We continue to speak of Peter's leadership and influence in the Church today when we call the pope the "successor of Peter." We participate in the mission of the Church when we bring people to Christ through the example and positive influence of our lives.

STUDENTS' PROFILE

Oanh Nguyen

I'm the youngest in my family sister of Dieu and My, daughter of Truc and Tuyet. Grew up in Vietnam for 9 years, then came to America, California, and currently live in Antioch. A Junior at Antioch High School, I want to work in any design field like Civil Engineering, or Fashion, or an Architect, and hoping to graduate at UC Berkeley. I receive a few certificated of playing sport and a 3.7 GPA in school.

The reason I'm in RCIA program because I want to receive First Communion, Confession, and Confirmation, and complete my Sacrament of Initiation to fully pledge as a Catholic. Also, I want to share and learn with others on how good God is to us and putting all my faith toward God to let others know I am a full pledge of Catholic. It is important to complete my Sacrament so I could help the next future generation as my Nephew and Nieces to lead toward and put faith and heart to god.

My Nguyen

I'm the second in my family oldest Dieu youngest sister Oanh, daughter of Tuyet and Truc. I live in VietNam for the past 15 yrs of my life, and then moved to America. Living close with my grandmother in California, lived in Antioch for 8 years. I used to want to achieve my goal to work as a nurse, but now I work at the Nail Salon for 3 years. I'm in RCIA program to achieve my Confirmation, also completed my Sacrament of Initiation. Together with my little sister Oanh, to fulfill my mom wishes and granting a good prospect as a daughter of Jesus Christ up in heaven, I would be honour to do my very best in this life without any regret and any mistakes. I want to learn and get my sacraments in church, and share to others how to engage and love our Jesus Christ.
