GOSPEL READING

LK 20:27, 34-38

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward.

Jesus said to them,
"The children of this age marry and remarry;
but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age
and to the resurrection of the dead
neither marry nor are given in marriage.
They can no longer die,
for they are like angels;
and they are the children of God
because they are the ones who will rise.
That the dead will rise
even Moses made known in the passage about the bush,
when he called out 'Lord, '
the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob;
and he is not God of the dead, but of the living,
for to him all are alive."

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS

In Jesus' day, tax collectors were not popular people. They were collaborators with the Romans and were despised by many Jewish people. The tax system allowed them to charge more than what was required so that they could make a profit for themselves. Thus, they were considered sinners by their countrymen. Observers in the crowd that day grumble because Jesus dines with a sinner. Throughout Scripture, Jesus' choice of dinner companions set him apart from other observant Jews of his time. In first century Jewish culture, to dine together was to show a bond of fellowship and peace among those at the table. Observant Jews did not generally dine with foreigners and sinners. Yet, Jesus chooses to honor the tax collector, Zacchaeus, by staying at his house.

Even before Jesus comes to his home, Zacchaeus shows himself to be someone in search of salvation. Zacchaeus, described as short in stature, climbs a tree in order to see Jesus. We know from Luke's description that Zacchaeus was no ordinary tax collector; he was, in fact, the chief tax collector and a person of some wealth. In his search for salvation, he humbled himself by making a spectacle of himself by climbing a tree.

Jesus recognizes the faith of this tax collector exhibited in his search for salvation and calls him down from the tree. In the hospitality he extends to Jesus and in his conversion of heart, Zacchaeus is raised up by Jesus as a model of salvation.

STUDENTS' PROFILES

ADRIANA ARRIAGA

My name is Adriana and I am 18 years old. I have a sibling who is ten years old.

My family is from Zacatecas, Mexico. Presently living in Pittsburg, Ca. I recently graduated from high school.

I am in the RCIA program so I could get confirmed, and to learn more about my religion. I want to become a fully active Catholic as I complete my sacraments of initiation. My studies will help me expand my knowledge of my faith.

AZTRID NUNEZ

I am Aztrid Nunez, the youngest in a family of five, my dad and mom, a sister and brother.

I am a senior at Mt. Diablo High School and plan to attend a university, to become a dentist.

I am in the RCIA program to receive my sacrament of Confirmation, and become a full-pledged Catholic. I expect to gain more knowledge about my religion so I can be more active in the church community. It is important that I complete my sacraments of initiation to follow what God has planned for me.

YETLANEZI PEREZ NUNEZ

My name is Yetlanezi Perez-Nunez, and live with my dad, Jorge Perez, my mom Columba Perez, and my older sister Aketzali, and two brothers, Jorge and Pablo.

I am a junior at Concord High School, and am not sure yet what I want to be, but I want to specialize in the medical field. I intend to go to Diablo Valley College after high school, and transfer after two years.

I am in the RCIA to get confirmed and to learn more about my Catholic Faith. As a full-pledged member of the church, I expect to get closer to God and be able to help in the community. Completing my sacraments of initiation allows me to follow God's plan for me and have a better understanding of my relationship with God.
