GOSPEL READING

LK 21:5-19

While some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings, Jesus said, "All that you see here-- the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." Then they asked him, "Teacher, when will this happen? And what sign will there be when all these things are about to happen?" He answered, "See that you not be deceived, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and 'The time has come.' Do not follow them! When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for such things must happen first, but it will not immediately be the end." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony. Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute. You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives."

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS

In the context of Luke, today's Gospel appears near the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem, just prior to the events that will lead to his crucifixion. His warnings and predictions are ominous but can be read in many ways.

To those who first heard Luke's Gospel, those may have been words of encouragement. The destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem by the Romans was history (70 A.D.); Luke's Gospel, Catholic scholars propose, was written between 80 and 90 A.D. His audience was probably Gentile Christians. Luke here tries to interpret the fall of Jerusalem for them and to locate it in God's plans for humankind (salvation history). At the same time, Luke is suggesting to his audience that there will be a considerable elapse of time before Jesus' final coming. Luke's listeners have likely seen much upheaval and are anxious to know if these are the signs of Jesus' coming. Luke is urging greater patience.

In the second part of today's Gospel, Jesus warns that his followers will face persecution for their beliefs. Luke presents persecution as an opportunity for the followers of Jesus for "It will lead to your giving testimony" (Luke 21:13). In persecution God's wisdom and power will be shown in the example of followers of Jesus. Perseverance in the face of persecution will lead to their salvation.

Here Jesus is assuring his followers that God is present to all believers, even in times of trouble. Ultimately, Jesus will witness to this with his own death. As disciples of Jesus, we try to follow his example, trusting in God's mercy and protection, even when we are facing difficulties.

STUDENTS' PROFILES

TATIANA ROMAN

My name is Tatiana Roman and am 26years old. My family is from Zacatecas, Mexico and moved to Pittsburg, CA where I met my wonderful husband. Together we have a beautiful three-year-old daughter. We enjoy going to church and learning more about God. I am doing my best to strive and be the best wife and mother to our daughter.

I decided to join the RCIA program, having gone through some hardships, to help me discover my faith again. I felt the Lord lead me to the correct path to complete my sacraments having been baptized but have not receive Christ in me. I want to do my part to make it to heaven and the changes I need to amend my life. As a full pledged member of the Catholic church, I will help when I can and make it a priority to serve the community of Our Lady Queen of the World.

There are tow reasons I am completing my sacraments of initiation; one is to get closer to God in hope of making it to heaven; the other is to be a better person and a good example to my daughter to be a good Catholic when she grows up.

NATELI VEGA

My name is Nateli Vega, 18 years of age and have a 24 year old brother.

I recently graduated from high school.

I am in the RCIA program to expand my knowledge of the Lord, and want to be confirmed, to become active in the parish community.

It is important that I complete my sacraments of initiation to be ready to for heaven and to learn more about my faith.

PARISH SOLIDARITY INITIATIVE FALL RETREAT

Come spend a day of prayer, fellowship, learning and advocacy with others who share the same values related to Gospel justice. We will: 1) spend time learning about the root causes of migration and how our church is responding to them; 2) advocate on legislation designed to address these causes; 3) learn about Catholic Relief Services' (CRS) plan for building greater solidarity between U.S. Catholics and those people that it serves abroad; 4) learn skills needed to organize social justice events in your parish. A Spanish track will be offered. If you can come, please RSVP for this free event by Tuesday, November 19th, to mguido@cceb.org. Please see the attached flyers, in English and Spanish, for more details. For questions, contact the local CRS office at mmckimmey@cceb.org or 510-768-3176.
