GOSPEL READING

LK 23:35-43

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said,
"He saved others, let him save himself
if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God."
Even the soldiers jeered at him.
As they approached to offer him wine they called out,
"If you are King of the Jews, save yourself."
Above him there was an inscription that read,
"This is the King of the Jews."

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying,
"Are you not the Christ?
Save yourself and us."
The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply,
"Have you no fear of God,
for you are subject to the same condemnation?
And indeed, we have been condemned justly,
for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes,
but this man has done nothing criminal."
Then he said,
"Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."
He replied to him,
"Amen, I say to you,
today you will be with me in Paradise."

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS

Today as a Church, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel we proclaim shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Savior of all.

Luke's Gospel has been loaded with surprises: the poor are rich, sinners find salvation, the Kingdom of God is found in our midst. Here we see the greatest surprise of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Savior of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross, perhaps in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. As the leaders jeer, the thief crucified by his side recognizes Jesus as Messiah and King, and finds salvation.

Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgment. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all.

STUDENTS' PROFILES

Lai Finh Saephan

My name is Lai Finh Saephan or you may call me Amy. I am 28 years old and was born in Martinez. I was raised in Richmond and now live in Antioch. I am the youngest out of 7 children. All my siblings are 2 years apart except for me and my sister before me, we are 11 months apart. My parents and my 5 older siblings were born in Thailand or Laos. I can speak both English and Mienh. I am currently not attending school but I am a full time worker and a full time mother to an 8 year old girl.

I am in the RCIA program because I am here to learn more about the God and what he has done for us till this day and not only that, but I am here to get closer to God. Growing up I never knew much about him, only the fact that he died for us so we can have a better future and life. As full pledge Catholic member, I am willing to attend Church every Sunday and be at every event as much as possible. The community can expect me to be able to provide the love that I have as being a Catholic by showing the prayers community with all that I can help with.

It is important for me to complete my sacraments of initiation because I want to be able to be forgiven for all the sin I have done, and I want to be able to put all of my love into worshipping the Lord and not only that but I want to be able to get closer to him and understand all that he has done to me.

I am honored and excited to be able to join the community of loving God and the people who has and will worship Him every day.

Aldo Becerra

My name is Aldo Becerra, I was born Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico. I live with my mom and dad and two younger sisters and a younger brother. I am currently attending Mount Diablo High School and plan to go to a four-year college.

I am in the RCIA program because I want to learn more about the Catholic Faith and complete my sacraments. I expect to help in the community through the Church. The community can expect me to support and help as best as I can. It is important for me to complete the sacraments of Initiation because I want to be closer to God and to the Catholic Faith.
