GOSPEL READING

Jn 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now.

But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth.

He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming.

He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.

Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY
06/12/2022

My dear parishioners,

Here are some more of my scattered thoughts...

It is clear that Jesus loves us and forgives us and invites us to walk with Him!

Faith...Repentance...Forgiveness. What is the key to forgiveness? Like King David and the woman in the Gospel, it is taking responsibility for our sins and being sorry for them. The Lord never tires of forgiving. It is we who are tired of asking Him for forgiveness. Forgiveness has no limits. Love overrules limits. As a follower of our Lord Jesus Christ love should be our foundation. A wonderful question for us to ponder this week is "How much have I been forgiven?" We need to practice forgiveness everyday in our lives.

"Lord Jesus, thank you for forgiving me, loving me, and accepting me just as I am. Please help me to do the same for others by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen!"

With a grateful heart

Father Tom

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons.

The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future.

Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Of all the great feasts we celebrate within the Church throughout the year, today's Solemnity presents us with a Mystery that is so deep and transcendent that our eternity will be spent in perpetual contemplation. The Trinity, the life of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, will never get old, never be fully understood, and will be the cause of our everlasting adoration and joy. Though the Church has used philosophical concepts to explain the Trinity, no human concept or description will ever fully explain Who God is. Though we can point to some general truths about God, we will never be able to fully depict the inner essence, depth, beauty and omnipotence of the Trinity.

As we consider that fact, it's important to understand that the Trinity is not first a theological mystery we try to define. Rather, the Trinity is first a communion of Persons we are invited to know. We do not primarily come to know God through intellectual deduction. We come to know God through prayerful union with Him. Though theology is exceptionally useful and important, the essence of God is beyond any and every philosophical concept we can define. The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are Persons. And as Persons, they want to be known. And they want to be known primarily through a life of deep and intimate prayer. Praying to One Person, of course, is praying to all, since they are One God. But we are, nonetheless, called to a relationship of love with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. And though our feeble minds may not be able to fully comprehend the essence of God, He will draw us deeper and deeper into a knowledge of Him if we let Him.

Prayer often begins by saying prayers, by meditating upon Scripture, and by listening. But true prayer is something much deeper. True prayer is contemplative prayer that ultimately leads to divine union. Only God can initiate this form of prayer in our lives, and only God, through this deep form of prayer, can communicate Himself to us as He is. Some of the greatest mystics of our Church, such as Saint John of the Cross and Saint Teresa of Ávila, explain in their mystical theology that the deepest knowledge of God does not come through concepts or images. In fact, if we wish to obtain a knowledge of God in His essence, we must allow Him to purge every concept of Who He is so that the pure light of His essence can be poured forth upon our minds. This knowledge, they say, is beyond knowing "about" God. It's the beginning of a knowledge "of" God. Reflect, today, upon the Most Holy Trinity. As you do, say a prayer to God asking for a deeper and more intimate knowledge of Him. Ask Him to communicate to you His divine love and to open your mind and heart to a deeper understanding of Who He is. Try to humble yourself before the great Mystery of the inner life of God. Humility before the Mystery of God means that we know how little we know about Him and how little we know of Him. But that humble truth will help you move closer to the deeper relationship of love to which you are called.

Our Lady Queen of the World Church

35TH YEAR ANNIVERSARY

This coming October, the Filipino Association of Our Lady Queen of the World, will be celebrating its 35th anniversary. Our mission statement remains the same and that is to provide financial, spiritual, and moral support to Our Lady Queen of the World Parish.

The association recently amended the By-Laws of the Filipino Association. One of the amendments was to open the membership to non-Filipinos, who wish to become a member. Membership dues are no longer a requirement to become a member. In September, the association will be launching two Scholarship Programs, San Pedro Calungsod Scholarship (ages 16 to 20 yrs of age) & San Lorenzo Ruiz Scholarship (ages 21 to 25 yrs of age). These scholarships are open to all members of the association. Check the church website for details.

We are extending this invitation to you and your family to be an active member of the Filipino Association of Our Lady Queen of the World. We welcome any interest from members to serve as an officer or as a board member. New ideas, new visions will ensure that the association will continue for another 35 years. We are proud of our previous officers who have relocated outside of our parish and became one of the catalyst that started the Filipino Association in their parishes.

Membership Application is available in the Church's Website or at the Church entrance. We look forward to receiving your membership application and being a part of our family.

Sincerely,

Nerissa Riray, President
Filipino Association of Our Lady Queen of the World
