GOSPEL READING

Lk 9:11b-17

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured.

As the day was drawing to a close, the Twelve approached him and said, "Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions; for we are in a deserted place here."

He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves."

They replied, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have, unless we ourselves go and buy food for all these people."

Now the men there numbered about five thousand.

Then he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty."

They did so and made them all sit down.

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

They all ate and were satisfied.

And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST
06/19/2022

My dear parishioners,

Here are some more of my scattered thoughts...

The 3rd Sunday of June is a special day. A day dedicated to our Fathers, a day when we are asked to remember with love and gratitude that special man in our lives. We think of the strength of a Father, his guiding hands, his wisdom and help. Fathers sacrifice their lives for their families, they are the spiritual leaders of the families, praying with the family and looking after their needs. Be grateful to our Fathers, by birth or adoption, who love us and support us through life. Be grateful to our Church leaders, who play a paternal role of guiding us through life. Thank God for our Father who always teaches us justly and grants us boundless mercy. Have a great Father's Day everyone!

Today, we also celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi— the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ—the central mystery of our liturgical life and worship. Jesus gave Himself totally and completely to the world by establishing the Eucharist as the gift of love and presence “This is my Body” and “This is my Blood” and “Whenever you do this you do it in memory of Me.” Jesus said this to the disciples at the Last Supper and from that moment on until the end of time. The Eucharist—the Body and Blood of Jesus—has been celebrated throughout history in all languages and throughout the world. It was the first Holy Mass that Jesus celebrated. This is the Sacrament of Love, the Sacrament of Presence, the Sacrament of Unity, and the Sacrament of Sharing. It is through the Eucharist that we encounter Jesus. Jesus wants each one of us to live out this Sacrament each day. At the Eucharist table we encounter Jesus, united with our brothers and sisters, to build up the world of justice and love. May we have a great reverence and love for the Holy Eucharist. We need to bring Jesus Christ that we celebrate in the Church, into the world.

I really miss the Corpus Christi procession and I wish we could continue with this wonderful procession in our parish. Maybe next year...

Love God, love your Father, and love your parish. We are a family that God has given to us. Please remember to pray for one another and please be assured that I pray for you and your family daily.

Once again, Happy Father's Day and Have a wonderful summer!

Blessings,

Father Tom

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, Latin for “the Body of Christ.” In the most recent revision of the liturgy, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology.

The feeding of the 5,000 is the only one of Jesus' miracles to appear in all four Gospels. Luke places it between Herod's question, “Who is this about whom I hear such things?” and Peter's response to Jesus' question about who he thought Jesus was: “You are the Messiah of God.” In Luke the feeding is not the result of Jesus' compassion for the crowd but is instigated by the disciples. They wanted Jesus to send the crowd away to town. Instead Jesus tells the disciples to give them some food on their own.

The passage is meant to remind us of two feedings in the Old Testament: the feeding of the Israelites in the desert and Elisha's feeding of 100 people with 20 loaves in 2 Kings 4:42-44. It is also connected to the institution of the Eucharist. As in the Last Supper accounts in Matthew, Mark, and Luke and in Paul's account in 1 Corinthians 11:23-24, Jesus takes bread, looks up to heaven, blesses the bread, breaks it, and then gives it to the disciples. In using this exact language, Luke is reminding his readers that in this miracle Jesus is doing more than feeding hungry people as God did for the Israelites and the prophet Elisha did as well. The bread he gives is his body, which he will continue to give as often as the community breaks bread in remembrance of him in the Eucharist..

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is celebrated every year on the Second Sunday after Pentecost. The traditional name for the feast is Corpus Christi. It is one of the three doctrinal feasts celebrated during Ordinary Time, in addition to the Most Holy Trinity celebrated on the first Sunday after Pentecost and Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, celebrated on the last Sunday of Ordinary Time. It emerged not only to give honor to Jesus present in the Eucharist but also to correct false teaching.

Over the centuries many nonbelievers have been skeptical of the Catholic doctrine of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, while others have belittled the belief or rejected it altogether. A surprising number of Catholics even question the Real Presence. These divergent understandings have led to much debate over the centuries. While the Real Presence of Christ has always been a core Catholic doctrine, it was defined as an essential element of the Catholic faith by the Council of Trent in 1551.

Various devotions and practices emerged to strengthen the faith of the people regarding the importance of the Eucharist. In the Eleventh Century people began to spend time in adoration kneeling before the Blessed Sacrament.

The featured event of the old Corpus Christi celebrations was an elaborate ceremonial procession, a practice that began in Cologne, Germany between 1274 and 1279 and spread rapidly to other countries. It was a religious parade. The people went to great expense to decorate the streets with draperies and banners in advance. Then on the festival day a large host, the consecrated bread, the Body of Christ or the Blessed Sacrament, was placed in a monstrance, a highly decorative receptacle, and it was carried under a canopy. The processions usually were quite long and arranged carefully according to a strict order of etiquette. The clergy and religious were positioned in front of the canopy, while civic officials, the lay faithful, other groups, residents, and visitors followed behind the canopy. The procession proceeded up and down the streets of the city or village with deep reverence. The participants sang hymns both while they were walking, and also at various places where the procession would stop. People lined up along the streets to witness the spectacle and adore the Blessed Sacrament, and the usual practice was to kneel as the Eucharist passed by. Also, at various points where the procession stopped, the minister used the monstrance and the Eucharist to bless the people.

Over time the crowds along the route grew increasingly diverse, and many nonbelievers were mixed in with devout Christians. Some were indifferent, but a few were downright hostile, heckling believers, hurling insults, and acting irreverently. In order to safeguard the Eucharist, the processions were restricted to the area in the immediate vicinity of the church or moved inside entirely.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is a special opportunity to worship the Lord Jesus, the true and eternal priest, really present in the sacrament of his Body and Blood. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life, and the grace and divine life that Jesus gives leads to ever greater holiness and joy in this life and eternal salvation in the next.
