GOSPEL READING

Lk 14:1, 7-14

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Then he said to the host who invited him, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

08/28/2022

My dear parishioners,

Here are some more of my scattered thoughts....

HUMILI TY

Everybody has been infected by Pride and we need to be reminded at all times that we need to be humble, avoid judging one another, and help one another to rise up and to walk ever more faithfully on the road to salvation.

Please pray for one another

Fr. Tom

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS

Meals played an important role in the society in which Jesus lived. More than a time for sharing nourishment, they were a time to share ideas and to model different aspects of social relationships. In Luke's Gospel, the places that a person ate (at the home of a tax collector, 5:29), the people with whom a person ate (sinners, 5:30), whether a person washed before eating (11:38), and, as is the case here, the place that a person sits while eating are all important. The narrator says Jesus tells a parable, but it is really wise advice to both guests and hosts about finding true happiness at the heavenly banquet.

Jesus warns guests to wait before taking their places at the table lest they be asked to move if someone more important arrives. This is more than just a lesson about dinner etiquette. It is advice on how to find your true place in the Kingdom of God. Jesus advises hosts not to invite people who would be expected to repay them to dinner but to invite those who could not repay: the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. This is where real blessings can be found.

In these sayings, Luke gives us not only advice on how to approach the end times but also on how to live according to Jesus' vision of a good society. Luke's Gospel also advises us how the Church must be part of bringing about this society. It is yet another example in Luke's Gospel of the reversal the kingdom brings about.

SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT

FEAST DAY: SEPTEMBER 3

Gregory was the prefect of Rome before he was 30. After five years in office he resigned, founded six monasteries on his Sicilian estate, and became a Benedictine monk in his own home at Rome. Ordained a priest, Gregory became one of the pope's seven deacons, and also served six years in the East as papal representative in Constantinople. He was recalled to become abbot, but at the age of 50 was elected pope by the clergy and people of Rome. Gregory was direct and firm. He removed unworthy priests from office, forbade taking money for many services, emptied the papal treasury to ransom prisoners of the Lombards and to care for persecuted Jews and the victims of plague and famine. He was very concerned about the conversion of England, sending 40 monks from his own monastery. He is known for his reform of the liturgy, and for strengthening respect for doctrine. Whether he was largely responsible for the revision of "Gregorian" chant is disputed.

Gregory lived in a time of perpetual strife with invading Lombards and difficult relations with the East. When Rome itself was under attack, he interviewed the Lombard king. His book, Pastoral Care, on the duties and qualities of a bishop, was read for centuries after his death. He described bishops mainly as physicians whose main duties were preaching and the enforcement of discipline. In his own down-to-earth preaching, Gregory was skilled at applying the daily Gospel to the needs of his listeners. Called "the Great," Gregory has been given a place with Augustine, Ambrose, and Jerome, as one of the four key doctors of the Western Church.

An Anglican historian has written: "It is impossible to conceive what would have been the confusion, the lawlessness, the chaotic state of the Middle Ages without the medieval papacy; and of the medieval papacy, the real father is Gregory the Great."

Saint Gregory the Great is the Patron Saint of:

ANNUAL MISSION CO-OP APPEAL

This weekend, August 27th and 28th, is the Annual Mission Co-op Appeal. We have been assigned the Spiritans (Congregation of the Holy Spirit) by the Diocese of Oakland. Please welcome Father Huy Dinh, CSSP, who will preach at all the weekend masses. By the virtue of baptism, we are called to be missionaries ourselves. One way of responding to that call is to support missionary work through the annual Mission Appeal. Welcome to Father Huy Dinh.

We would like to offer our joyful and heartfelt thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father for 60 wonderful years of our beloved church! Our hearts are most grateful for the ever abundant blessings poured out upon her, 40 years of which we have been so blessed to witness and share.

Gary and I celebrated our sacrament of marriage here; likewise, Gail and Grace celebrated their sacraments of holy communion and confirmation whilst Kaya and Zoë are currently in her confirmation program.

We have been fortunate to experience church life with beloved pastors Fr Theo Palis, Fr Richard Culver, and Fr Peter Ngo; also our assistant Pastors Fr Robert Castro, Fr Jimmy, Fr Thursnston, Fr Mark, Fr Joseph Phan.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our current administrator, Rev. Fr. Thomas Khue, to Deacon Loc, and to all the tireless church ministers, choirs, office and program directors & coordinators, faithful morning ladies, parish councils, organizations and devotional groups - together we thrive as a holy church of God.

Our Lady Queen of the World is a steadfast resource in our life and faith journey, our heaven here on earth. Peace and joy to all our families.
