GOSPEL READING

Lk 23: 35-43

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said,
"He saved others, let him save himself
if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God."

Even the soldiers jeered at him.

As they approached to offer him wine they called out,

"If you are King of the Jews, save yourself."

Above him there was an inscription that read,

"This is the King of the Jews."

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying,

"Are you not the Christ?

Save yourself and us."

The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply,

"Have you no fear of God,

for you are subject to the same condemnation?

And indeed, we have been condemned justly,

for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes,
but this man has done nothing criminal."

Then he said,

"Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

He replied to him,

"Amen, I say to you,

today you will be with me in Paradise."

SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST,
KING OF THE UNIVERSE
11/20/2022

Here are some of my scattered thoughts....

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As the church's year draws to a close and another year of life slips quietly by, our thoughts are directed towards the end of time. I have two things to share with you:

- 1) It becomes clear that our state of readiness to meet the Lord depends on the type of life we lead. Where we will stand on Christ's arrival is decided by what we are trying to be at this moment. Our future happiness is shaped out of our present efforts to turn God and live life properly.
- 2) The challenge facing us to put our lives in order and turn our backs on such things as the practice of dishonesty and selfishness. Selfishness and dishonesty can cut us off from God and close us in ourselves. How we appear before God when Christ comes is not a matter of luck, but will depend on whether we are messengers of hope and bearers of light in times of troubles....

When will Christ come, the exact timing, is unknown, but we all need to prepare, to get ready...to be faithful to God till the end.

With Prayers and Love,
Fr. Tom

- 1) Parish Communal Penance service will be on Monday, 12/5/2022 at 7pm. There will be several priests available for individual confessions in English, Spanish and Vietnamese. Please come to prepare for Christ's coming.
- 2) Our Mass of Anointing of the Sick and Healing will be on Saturday, 12/17/2022 at 10AM.

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS

Today as a Church, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel we proclaim shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Savior of all.

Luke's Gospel has been loaded with surprises: the poor are rich, sinners find salvation, the Kingdom of God is found in our midst. Here we see the greatest surprise of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Savior of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross, perhaps in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. As the leaders jeer, the thief crucified by his side recognizes Jesus as Messiah and King, and finds salvation.

Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgment. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all.

SAINT CECILIA

SAINTS OF THE DAY: NOVEMBER 22

Although Cecilia is one of the most famous of the Roman martyrs, the familiar stories about her are apparently not founded on authentic material. There is no trace of honor being paid her in early times. A fragmentary inscription of the late fourth century refers to a church named after her, and her feast was celebrated at least in 545.

According to legend, Cecilia was a young Christian of high rank betrothed to a Roman named Valerian. Through her influence, Valerian was converted, and was martyred along with his brother. The legend about Cecilia's death says that after being struck three times on the neck with a sword, she lived for three days, and asked the pope to convert her home into a church.

Since the time of the Renaissance she has usually been portrayed with a viola or a small organ.

Reflection

Like any good Christian, Cecilia sang in her heart, and sometimes with her voice. She has become a symbol of the Church's conviction that good music is an integral part of the liturgy, of greater value to the Church than any other art.
